THE LATEST DESPATCHES.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.

The death is announced of Joshua H Homer, M. P. for New Westminster, B.
C.

The Methodist General Conference concluded its Quadrennial session yesterday. Right Rev. Dr. Aylsworth's resolution that the Dominion Government institute a rigid enquiry into the charges of immorality and profanity preferred against its Indian agents in the North West was tabled by a vote of 31 to 27.

The Canadian Pacific Railway is competing with other Pacific roads for Cleveland oil trade, also for passenger business between New York and San Francisco.
Execution of Sproule, British Columbia, takes place October 1st.

Canadian Pacific said to be endeavoring to secure the Government telegraph lines of the North-West.

Gabriel Dumont, with a number of friends from the Ottawa district, is expected shortly to return to the North-West.

Winnipeg races opened on Thursday.
The leading purses have been taken by American horses.

Beach states that he never wants to row another race like that with Gaudier.
He says the latter is altogether the best man he has met, and at one time felt that he would have to give up.

The Imperial Parliament prorogues to-day. Salisbury and Churchill will visit the continent.

A number of Pachas who have been specially sent to London, had a conference with Lord Salisbury to effect a settlement of the Egyptian question, which is becoming more pressing on account of a renewal of the crisis in Eastern Europe. The basis of settlement will probably be a continuance of British protection over Egypt.

THE POLICE BARRACKS.

The following is a copy of the telegram sent to Sir John A. Macdonald re the Police Barracks on Wednesday last, with the Premier's reply:

To Sir John A. Macdonald,

Ottawa

Will barracks be located and tenders asked for their erection this fall as promised?

J. F. BETTS,

Acting Mayor.

(REPLY.)

To Acting Mayor Betts,

Prince Albert, Sas.

Barracks will be located in a few days.

JOHN A. MACDONALD.

Shannon & McLeod have just received a large stock of Buck Mitts and Gloves lined and unlined, Woolen Mitts and Stockings, Moccasins, Gloves, Trunks for sale.

Thos. Agnew has manufactured a fancy drum stand, with hot water tank attached, which he intends exhibiting at the exhibition next Thursday. We would like to see some opposition from the east end.

Mr. John Connors, who was forest ranger here, but who recently returned to Ottawa, has been appointed Superintendent of the Canadian National Park, with headquarters at Banff. We are pleased to hear of our genial friend's good luck, and we wish him a long lease of his new position. A better man for the place would be hard to be found. He is on his way to the scene of his future labours.

Mr. Rae, of the Indian Department, has returned from the Indian payments to the east of this place. He paid John Smith's land, James Smith's, Chapman's and a few of the loyal members of Chick-atepsim's band. Mr. Rae was accompanied by Mr. Hughes, M.N.W.C., and Mr. Adams, and escorted by a detachment of Mounted Police in charge of Sergt. Montgomery. T. O. Davis and J.

Smith's with goods, and Balalaie and Peter Turner were at La Crosse. The Indians appeared satisfied with the exception of Chickatepsim, who is still out in the cold as far as treaty money is concerned, owing to his vagaries during the late unpleasantness. Mr. Rae leaves on Monday to pay Twatt, Mistawasis, Attakosop and the other northern Indians.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

Gathered by our Reporters.

The Police Commissioner is expected in shortly.

The land office is not to be removed until further orders.

Rev. Pere Cloutier, of the Archbishop's

Palace, St. Boniface, is in town.

on the slope to the east of Mr. Hurd's house.

Russell & Davis, late of Qu'Appelle, have opened a butcher shop in Conn.

Brown's block.

The Carrot River Agricultural Exhibition took place yesterday. A number of our citizens were present.

The address of the citizens of Prince Albert to Sir John Macdonald was forwarded to Ottawa by the last mail.

We have received a copy of the prize list of the McLeod Exhibition, which takes place on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th October.

The roof the Court House is being shingled, the chimneys are up, and the building is beginning to present a handsome appearance.

Shannon & McLeod received, this week, a splendid assortment of Boots,

Shoes, Slippers, etc, for ladies, gents and children's wear.

J. M. Rae, accompanied by O. E.

Hughes, M. N. W. C., went to Fort La Crosse on Monday last, to pay treaty to Indians of that district.

Tenders are asked by the Chairman of the Board of Works for a drainage Church street and another from Conn. Batton-ner's residence to the river.

J. B. Mack arrived by the last mail, and will take charge of the H. B. guest mill. He is putting the mill in order, and expects to have it running shortly.

We regret to say that some neglected to mention in our last issue that on the Sunday previous His Lordship Bishop Grandin preached, and administered the sacrament of confirmation to a number of young people, in St. Ann's church.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE Regina Leader has passed into the hands of a company, and Mr. Davin has ceased to be its editor, though he still continues to contribute to it. Mr.
Davin intends to devote his time to the practice of his profession.

The Battleford Herald says, "Scarlet fever is prevalent in Prince Albert." We are sorry to hear it, though we have a well-founded suspicion that when it said "Prince Albert" it meant a place further west.

The Edmonton Bulletin says: "Another more (the police patrol) of protecting the mail, nearly as certain and much cheaper, would be to render it not worth robbing by establishing money order offices at the points mentioned.
The people interested have a right to the protection of their interests by one means or the other, and must receive it if business is to be conducted on a modern basis instead of that prevailing in the days of Robin Hood." No harm has not been promised money order offices for some time. A little patience and all will be well. Give Robin Hood a chance first.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

As the term for which the present School Board for District No. 3 was elected expires on the 11th ult., the electors of that district will be called upon to select trustees for the next year. While we do not wish to assume the role of a dictator by expressing preference for any particular individual, we take the liberty of calling attention to the necessity of selecting men to look after the educational interests of the town who are possessed of the necessary intelligence and energy to carry out the expressed wishes of the people. The retiring Board have not done as well as they might have, or, more properly, should have. They, it would seem, which is a very commendable feature sometimes—were averse to assuming the responsibility of undertaking the building of a new school, preferring rather to shift that burden on their successors; but no man should seek a public position who is not prepared to carry out at the earliest possible moment the expressed wishes of those whom he represents. We have no objection to the re-election of the present Board further than this, which may be a fatal one and may not. If, however, they are re-elected we hope they will grapple with the new school like men who mean business.

NORTH-WEST COUNCIL.

The North-West Council is summoned to meet in Legislative session, on Wednesday the 13th day of October next, in the Council Chamber at Regina, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

THE GLOBE ON MR. DEWDNEY.

The Globe of August 28th says:—

"Mr. Dewdney has speculated in his position and profited by rascally dealings with the Indians, who, he said, might 'die and be damned' if they would not eat rotten pork furnished by one of his contracting friends."

And when the inquiry which is about to be made exonerates Mr. Dewdney, as we are sure it will, the Globe will still repeat the baseless charge. It never believes a statement on oath or otherwise, which does not back up its assertions, no matter how unfounded the latter may be. If it tells a lie—as in this case—it sticks to it.

OUR ANNUAL EXHIBITION.

We are happy to say that notwithstanding the season was not as favourable as we all would like it to have been, the indications are that our Fall Show, if we are favoured with Queen's weather on the 30th, will be a decided success.

Too much credit cannot be accorded the officers of the Society for the energy they have displayed in securing the necessary funds to offer suitable prizes.
While they have been energetic, however, we do not have sight of the fact that but for the hearty cooperation of the citizens of Prince Albert the Society would not be in a position to offer money and cups to the value of $850. So much faith have we in the beneficial influence of Agricultural Exhibitions that we are only sorry that the Society has not double the amount to offer, but considering that times have not been the best this season the encouragement offered by the Society should be gratifying in the extreme to those who take an interest in the development of the various industries of the District.

Among the prizes to be awarded are two handsome cups, one contributed by the H. B. Company, to which we referred some time ago, and the Merchants' Challenge Cup. This latter arrived by express last Monday, and is on exhibition at Clarke's drug store. It is really a beautiful piece of work and very appropriate in design. The cup proper rests upon four supports, two on each side, crossing each other in the shape of an X, which in turn rest upon a base like that of an ordinary car, though that on its upper side. On this latter, between the supports, is a representation of a horse in a standing posture. Resting on the supports are representations of a hoe and rake, and on the right and left of the cup proper are sheaves of grain with sickles suspended in their binding. Surmounting all, in a reclining posture on a pedestal, is a gentle bovine in repose.
It is about fifteen inches in height, and is valued at $75. It becomes the property of any one who makes the best exhibit of a herd of cattle consisting of 1 bull, two cows, and two calves, twice out of three times. The H. B. cup is to be granted to the farmer who exhibits the best collection of grain consisting of 10 bushels of wheat, 10 of barley and 10 of oats, three times out of five.

The competition in horses promises to be fair, while in cattle, sheep and pigs it will be keen. The competition in home-cured bacon will not, be as good as usual owing to the want of grain to fatten hogs.
Some good specimens of poultry will be exhibited, while the cheese industry will be well represented. In grain, particularly in wheat, the competition will be keen, as the wheat grown in the district this year is mostly of a good quality.
The display of field notes will be exceptionally large, as also of garden vegetables. Dairy produce, as usual, will be represented largely, and the competition will be decidedly keen, as there are a number of good butter makers in this district.

The ladies' department, as a matter of course, will be represented by the usual articles of feminine handiwork.
Entries will be received up to the 29th of September, so that any who have not yet made their entries will have time to do so. We, however, advise those who have articles to exhibit to make their entries as soon as possible, and not wait until the last day and thus create confusion.
The annual supper will take place in the evening.
The P.A.C. Band will be in attendance.

WAR CLAIMS.

From our despatches it will be seen the cheques for the balance of the war claims enquired into and awarded by the first Commission appointed by the Government have been issued by the Auditor-General. We do not know how much of this money will find its way into this district, but much or little it will be very acceptable, as the winter is approaching and the money is badly needed by many.

THE SASKATCHEWAN.

The Battleford Herald of Sept. 6 says:
"The interruption of navigation caused by the breaking through of the new channel of the Saskatchewan at the Cut Off, near Cumberland, brings forcibly forward the importance of vigorously prosecuting the proposed improvements on that river."

"Steamboat men are of the opinion that the river could be easily kept in its channel by driving piles in the cut-off and then, taking advantage of the material growing on its banks, to cut timber and brush and let it float down against the piles. This would gather sand and form an indurated dam that would restrain the water and keep it within its proper banks, and a few days would suffice to cut away the bars of silt that have been formed, just below the cut-off and restore the original steamboat channel. The sooner this part of the work is undertaken the easier it will be of accomplishment. It does not at first sight seem much to say that three hundred tons of freight have been left at Cumberland, but when we consider that it will have to lie there until next year, and look at the many points on the Saskatchewan and in the interior that are dependent upon this freight for the necessaries of life, the loss and suffering likely to follow assume alarming proportions. Engineers are on the river making the necessary survey to enable the Government to carry on the scheme of improvement that may be found best suited to the end in view, and the interruption to trade, that has occurred this season should be taken as a powerful argument in favor of immediate action."

While the Government are deserving of credit for the efforts they are making to improve the navigation of the Saskatchewan, the fact remains that what is being done at present (apart from the surveying of the river) in that direction, especially to the east of this point, will be of little avail. What is required is a steam barge with sufficient power to ascend the rapids, as where the rapids are numerous the present barge used by the engineers is not large enough to carry all the stones required to be taken out of the rapids, has not the power to go to the shore when loaded, and is obliged, in consequence, to float with the current. Not being able to return the work is left half done. Thus money is being expended to little or no purpose.
If any satisfactory improvement is to be accomplished in the navigation of the Saskatchewan a large amount of money must be expended. Half measures will be of no avail.

THAS A GLORIOUS VICTORY (1)

For fifty-three years Hallimand has been Reform or Grit. The late Mr.
Thomson represented the constituency for twenty years, and at the last general election was returned by 125 of a majority. At the late election, with the great Liberal reaction threatening to swamp the Tory party, the Grits, instead of having an increased majority, when they might cry victory, had their majority considerably decreased, in the face, too, of the fact that the largest portion of the new names added to the voters' list were Grits, and that Mr.
Merritt was not, like Mr. Coulter, a resident of the riding. At the rate the Grits have been losing—big pardons; gaining strength they will soon wipe out their majority altogether. We do not know what they will say then when they are so enthusiastic now at being able to hold their old time stronghold with such a loss. Of course the Globe makes the usual charge of bribery and corruption against the Conservatives, as if the party it represents would not do anything dirty, and if they did they would not whitewash their guilty followers at the earliest possible moment.

And now Mr. Coulter is invited by Mr. Prefontaine, the Race and Revenge member for Chamby, to a banquet to be offered by the Rileites in honor of this last striking evidence of the declining moral and numerical strength of the Grit party. Yes, it was a glorious victory (1) to be sure.

A MASONIC POEM.

THE LEVEL AND THE SQUARE.

We meet upon the Level and we part upon the Square; What words of precious meaning those words Masonic Counsels, let us contemplate them; they are worthy of a thought.
In every soul of Masonry those precious words are wrought.
We meet upon the Level, though from every station brought;
The monarch from his palace, the labourer from his cot;
For the King must drop his dignity when kneeling at our door.
And the poorest is as equal as he walks the checkered floor.
We meet upon the Plumb; 'tis our Master's great command;
We walk upright in virtue's way and lean to neither hand;
The All-seeing Eye that reads our hearts will bear us witness true That we will try to be upright and give each man his due.

We part upon the Square, for the world must have its due.
We mingle with the multitude, but keep our secrets true;
That influence of our meetings in memory is given,
And we long upon the Level to renew the happy scene.

There's a world where all are equal; we are hurrying to fast;
We shall meet upon the Level there when the gates of death are passed.
We shall stand before the Orient, and our Master will be there.
Our work is to try our lives to prove with God's entering grace.
We shall meet upon the Level there, but never thence depart.
There's a mansion bright and glorious set for the pure in heart.
There's an everlasting welcome for the hosts rejoicing there Who have met upon the Level and been tried upon the Square.

Let us meet upon the Level, then, while labouring to be fast;
Let us meet and let us labour, tho' the Labour be severe.
Already in the Western sky the Signs bid us prepare To gather upon Working Tools and part upon the Square.
Hands round, then, Brother Masons, gather in the Golden Chain;
We part upon the Square below to meet in Heaven again.
Each tie that has been broken here shall be cemented there.
And none be lost around God's Throne who parted on the Square.

DE. ROBERT MORRIS.

WHY VILLAGE PAPERS ARE DRY.

So you are kicking about your village paper being so dry, are you? Well, who's to blame for it? Can you think of anything that has happened within a week that was not in the paper? No, you don't know as you can, but then it is not your business to watch out for locals. That is the editor's business, he gets paid for it. Ha, ha, ha! That's a good one, isn't it? You got away the best of the editor that time, didn't you? Ha, ha! Can't get over it, can you? Good joke on the editor. Guess he'll be careful how he gets into an argument with you in future. But say, friend, did you ever stop to think that the village paper is just as lively and interesting as you will let it be? You buy a new lot and put up a house, and see how quickly the paper will say you are the stuff, and you know how to fit things up around you in good shape. Buy a lot on Third street and put up a three story brick block with some nice stores, and plate glass fronts on the ground floor, and offices, etc., on the second and third, and office you get the rubbish cleared off the paper will tell the world what an enterprising man you are, and how far seeing you are to place your money where it will not only bring you big interest, but prove a grand ornament to the town. Run for the Legislature or Congress, and see if the village paper don't tell the people all it knows about you. How your great-grandmother used to sell fish, and how many of your relatives have been hung out to Congress. How you used to play marbles and swap jackknives just like other boys, but now you are seeking honors, and that the people will do well to elect you to step at home. Build a factory that will employ 100, and see if the paper don't call you a public-spirited philanthropist, who not only has money, but puts it where it will do his fellowmen most good. Yes, the village is just what you make it, and those who call it dry help it least.

—DANIEL (N.Y.) Beebe.

The Hudson Bay Railroad scheme is still somewhat in doubt. Hugh Sutherland's latest telegram was that he was shipping rails on Saturday and that work would commence at once, he sailing on the following day.

TERRITORIAL NEWS.

The Lethbridge News says:
A rumor is current in town that a party of six Indians who left the reserve some time ago to go across the line on a horsestealing expedition, fell in with a party of Crows with whom they had a fight. Five of the Bloods fell victims to the superior number of the Crows and one escaped and returned to camp. Another party of seven five which left here about the same time have not been heard from, and it is feared they have also been annihilated. We understand that as soon as the twenty payments are over, which will be the latter part of this week, a party of 200 intend leaving for the scene of the late fight to have revenge. We got this information from a man just in from the Blood camp and give it for what it is worth, as we are unable at the present writing to find out anything more reliable.

The Calgary Tribune says:
One day last week as Messrs. S. A. Smyth and E. L. Baker were engaged putting up hay in one of the townships north of this place they saw a lynx crossing the prairie close to where they were working. Seizing his rifle Mr. Smyth started in pursuit. Seeing him advance the lynx suddenly stopped and crouched in the grass as if in hiding; as he drew nearer to the animal it crouched lower and lower until its head rested on its paws and only its tasseled ears were visible above the grass. When about 15 yards distant Smyth raised his rifle and was about to fire when Baker called out, "I'll bet you a V you dare not take the rifle from your shoulder and walk up to him." "I'll go you one," Smyth replied, and lowering the rifle he stepped towards the animal. When within a few feet of the lynx it sprang upon him with a lightning bound, setting its claws firmly into his shoulder, and endeavoring to fasten its teeth in his throat. Dropping his rifle he seized it by the neck with both hands and succeeded in holding its formidable jaws at a safe distance from his face. Though seemingly at a disadvantage the lynx proved himself a terrible foe at close quarters. Keeping his shoulder held secure he commenced such a vigorous kicking and scratching with his hind claws that Smyth realized that immediate action was necessary to save his life. Leaning forward he threw himself full weight upon the animal. The shock seemed to paralyze it for a moment and thinking he had the "drop" on it he resolved to, if possible, capture it alive. Placing his knee across his neck and drawing a stout cord from his pocket he was engaged in tying its legs together, when the animal, by a powerful effort, twisted its head around and seized him by the leg just above the ankle, biting it in a savage manner. By this time Mr. Baker had arrived on the scene and picking up the rifle he sent a bullet through the animal's brain. Though considerably scratched and bitten Mr. Smyth received no serious injury. He won the V, but he says he will pass next time.

The Battleford Herald says:
A complimentary ball was given to "D" division of the N.W.M.P., in the old Government buildings, on the evening of the 19th inst. for the departure for the south. The affair was one of the most enjoyable of the kind ever given here. An address was presented to Major Steele and his command, to which the major replied in a neat speech, regretting that duty called him elsewhere, and thanking the people of Battleford for their uniform kindness to himself and his command.

It appears that horse stealing on an extensive scale has been going on for some time. Parties from each tribe met in the neighborhood of the sweet grass hills, when a fight of two hours duration ensued. Six Piegan were killed, the victors carrying off their scalps as trophies. It is believed further trouble will be the result.

In the race on Saturday Beach immediately got a straight lead, pulling thirty-seven strokes to the minute to Gaudaur's thirty-five. At the Creek Gaudaur led by the third of a length. Beach spurted at the half-mile tree, until he led by half a length, at Crown College steps, and was the same distance ahead at the Crab tree. At Hammersmith Beach was three lengths in front. His time to Hammersmith was 8:06 and Gaudaur's time 9:03. At Baffin Gaudaur began to decrease his opponent's lead, and at Chatewick was only half a length behind. By the time Thorny Croft was reached Gaudaur was half a length in front of Beach, and at Pumping Station was still slightly in lead. In this emergency the local Government were applied to to render assistance. This they are authorized to do by an Act of the Legislature, upon security of the land grant.

HOP GROWING.

Says the Emigrant—"Hop growing will some day become an extensive and valuable industry in Manitoba (and it might have added the North West), where the vine grows wild in great luxuriance and perfection, the lupuline, the essential principle, being unusually large and strong, though a little rank, perhaps, as most wild fruits are compared with tame. The latter fault would, however, disappear quickly under cultivation, and as the removal of this plant is easily and successfully done, the cultivation upon any scale desired is merely a question of when some intelligent, enterprising gardener or farmer will set about it. Both climate and soil are favourable to hop growth here, and to curing the flower, while the demand already exists for a considerable supply, the cheapening of which by local growth, would widen the consumption and open up a new trade channel. The cultivation is simple, the root sets are easily and cheaply had, poles are abundant and could be had cheap, as there is no demand for them for anything else at present."

Mr. Rufus Stephenson, Inspector of Colonization Companies is visiting Red Deer, Edmonton, and Battleford, and will shortly visit Prince Albert. Mr. Boucher, of Qu'Appelle, accompanies him.
